PRINCIPAL NEWS OF THE TOWN & COUNTY

INTERESTING ITEMS COLLECTED BY OUR LIVE CORRESPONDENTS IN VARIOUS TOWNS, AND GATHERED BY OUR REPORTERS ABOUT THE CITY.

PAROWAN

George A. Lowe, Jr., has lately purchased a Studebaker car.

Willard Corry of Cedar City was a visitor here on Wednesday.

J. L. Lowder is confined to his bed with a severe attack of scarletina.

Mrs. John E. Eyre of Minersville is visiting relatives and friends in Parowan.

L. W. Evans of Nephi, representing the International Harvester company, spent a few days in Parowan this week.

W. Warner Mitchell and Charles Adams left for Ogden Tuesday morning to attend the Democratic convention August 18th.

E. L. Clark and Dr. Green are sporting new automobiles. Mr. Clark still believes in the Studebaker car; Dr. Green has a new Dodge.

George P. Brown has lately purchased the residence of Hans J. Mortensen. This is one of the prettiest places in the city, and Mr. Brown is well pleased with the purchase.

S. A. Halterman left Wednesday morning for Salt Lake City to get another Hudson car. Mr. Halterman will not doubt find a ready sale for the car as he has not been able lately to get enough of these cars to supply the demand for them.

Before leaving for Salt Lake City Samuel A. Halterman closed a deal with J. Clayton Mitchell and Lawrence Adams for his farm just a few miles below Parowan. This is one of the best small farms in the valley, consisting of 40 acres of cultivated land with a pump well capable of producing 800 gallons per minute, and sufficient implements to operate the farm. The consideration paid was $4,000.

SAHARA.

Sahara, Utah, Aug. 15, 1916. Many enjoyable rains came in this locality during the past few days.

Union Sunday School every Sunday 10:30 a. m. Music by the Johnson orchestra. Mr. G. C. Hutcherson superintendent. All welcome.

Mr. O. Brown and son, formerly of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived last week with their car-load of live stock and equipment to improve his ranch.

This has been a busy week for the housewives, canning fruit. The fruit brought from the Dixie country more than compares with the same kinds of southern California.

It is with much pleasure that we note the interest manifested in our Sunday School. We are fortunate to have in our midst Prof. G. C. Hutcherson, as our superintendent, as he is an able leader.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Atwell and son Paul of Coolidge, California, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedrick during the past week. The Atwells were very favorably impressed with the present outlook for this valley.

The registration notices have been posted and several of our people have registered. Our new precinct or district includes townships 32 south, range 16 west, 33 south, ranges 15 and 16 west. Mrs. Mary M. Prey is registry agent, one half mile south of Sahara.

It is with regret that we learn of the death of Arthur Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson of Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson would have been with us in this valley some time ago had it not been for the illness of the boy. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family. Mr. Anderson is a cousin of Mr. C. M. Magnusson.

Mrs. Guy Johnstone gave a Japanese party Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., in honor of her daughter Marion's ninth birthday. Following the luncheon the day was spent in children's pastimes. Those present were: Misses Volberg and Lucella Magnusson; Carrie Hedrick, Alice Foreman, Blendine and Tacoma Baker, and Masters Harrison Magnusson, Burton Reynolds, Buddie Johnstone, and Bryant Chamberlain of Los Angeles, who is spending the summer with the Hedricks. Mrs. Johnstone was assisted by Mrs. A. Foreman and Mrs. G. Corn.

The regular meeting of the Ford "Get Together Club" met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Johnson August 12th, with thirty-seven members present. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carter of Lund were guests of the evening. Mr. H. O. Daugherty has honored the club by accepting the presidency. Following the business meeting the evening was spent in the Yule-tide of KANARRAVILLE.

Kanarra, Utah, Aug. 16, 1916. The coal mine which is being worked by Reeves & Williams is now opened ready for trade. A load will be down tomorrow.

Due to the heavy rains the second cutting of alfalfa is a little late, being about two weeks behind the usual date for cutting.

Last week Thursday the Poultry club took a hike onto the mountain, stopping at the Will C. Reeves ranch, where they had dinner. Those participating in the hike were, Mrs. Sarah Sylvester, president of the club; Mesdames Jesse Williams and Charles Parker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Stapley, Mrs. Hannah Williams, Miss Jennie Reeves, Mrs. W. C. Reeves. The mountain road being washed out, the party went on horse-back. After dinner they all went over to the LaVerkin. Some returned home the same day and some not until the next day. The young people both male and female intend going to the mountain again Saturday and stay over Sunday.

BUCKHORN.

Buckhorn, Utah, Aug. 14, 1916. Mr. Bert Skinner and Mr. Rowley were in town Saturday.

Mrs. James and two daughters have returned home.

We have had our full share of rain lately.

Mr. Aaron Edwards was in Beaver last week.

Five wagons are going from our small burg to Dixie for fruit for the owners and their neighbors.

NEW HARMONY.

New Harmony, Utah, Aug. 15. William Chinn has gone to Pang-uitch to haul lumber.

Ashby Pace went to New Castle Saturday after his wife, who has been visiting there.

Miss Irene Rhoner of Salt Lake City is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Kelsey have returned from Fairview, Utah, where they have been to visit their daughter and family.

Quite a number of our young people are going to St. George to attend school this winter. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prince will also spend the winter in St. George, while their daughter Velda will continue her music lessons under Miss Evelyn Thurston, who has been giving lessons here the past four months.

LUND.

Lund, Utah, August 15, 1916. The people of Lund and the surrounding country met last night and formed the Lund Commercial club, the purpose being to foster a more aggressive community spirit, and to cooperate in the further development of this section of the state.

The following officers were elected: President, Frank E. Brennan, local manager of the Continental Oil Co.; vice-president, Fred W. Heck, of the H. J. Doolittle Co.; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. William W. Butler.

Week End Excursion via Salt Lake Route.

Until September 30th, excursion tickets will be on sale every Saturday, good returning Sunday, between stations Sandy to Modena, inclusive, at greatly reduced rates. See agent for particulars.

Mrs. Mary Poulsen and children of Richfield are here visiting with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Haight.

In order not to interfere with the supply of water in the taps while it is needed for domestic purposes, the streets have been sprinkled of late during the evenings.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. R. A. Thorley, who was taken very suddenly and alarmingly ill last Monday night, while still in a critical condition, is resting easier at this writing and hopes are entertained for her recovery.

FOR SALE.—600 acres of Cedar's choicest land northwest of Cedar City, joining the Jensen farm—good high water right can be secured. Over 40 acres plowed and seeded. Only $22.50 per acre. I must sell.—R. Steiter, 40 S. Main street, Salt Lake City, Utah. Adv.-1w.

DEMOCRATS MEET IN COUNTY CONVENTION

The Democrats of Iron county met in convention at Parowan last Saturday and elected the following delegates to attend the State convention at Ogden, which is in session today:

John Parry, Mrs. C. G. Bell, E. H. Macfarlane, William Lund, Donald Forsyth, Samuel F. Leigh, Roy F. Homer, Charles Adams, W. Warner Mitchell and Mrs. Don Forsyth.

The following platform was adopted:

"Our committee on Platform and Resolutions respectfully submit the following:

"Resolved, that we, the delegates of the Democratic County convention in Parowan assembled, do hereby endorse our National platform and declare that no president since the time of Washington has so successfully met and mastered the national issues as they have presented themselves, as our honored President, Woodrow Wilson.

"That we pledge the Democracy of Iron county to the re-election of Woodrow Wilson this fall.

"That we do soverely censure the unmanly attacks of the Republican candidate for president (Mr. Hughes) upon a man who is in every way his peer.

"That we hereby renew our allegiance to the principle of prohibition, which has so long been advocated by the Democratic party.

"That we declare ourselves unalterably in favor of state-wide prohibition; that we are opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for state-wide and national prohibition.

"That we will support for office only men who will pledge themselves for state-wide and national prohibition.

"That we are perfectly satisfied with the prosperity of our country, and that we attribute this prosperity to no other cause than to the Democratic principles and policies as carried out by our party."

Mrs. Adella Murie of Salt Lake City came in Wednesday to attend the sick bed of her sister, Mrs. R. A. Thorley.

W. W. Roundy, who was operated on at the Southern Utah Hospital last week for appendicitis, returned home this morning.

Dr. Leonard reports a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Stephens, born last Friday evening. All doing well.

Mr. Mulliken from Kentucky is at the Southern Utah Hospital receiving treatment.

Dr. Leonard received a call this morning from Bellevue to attend Mrs. Gregerson of that place.

A baby boy is reported today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hunter. Dr. Macfarlane in charge, and all doing well.

Dr. Macfarlane made a trip to Clifton ranch this week and found Mrs. Clifton suffering from a severe attack of influenza, from which she is recovering now very nicely.

I have an A1 Jersey cow, makes over 6 lbs. butter week. Young. Will be fresh in February. Will sell cheap. Address L. A. Slayman, Lund, Utah. Adv.-1w.

Percy Wilkinson, foreman of our mechanical department, is ill with an attack of quinsy, and is in consequence absent from his post for a day or two.

FOR SALE, or trade for hay: One single-seated buggy, with pole and shafts; good condition. Also single harness good as new.—Alfred Frey.

Joseph T. Wilkinson, Jr., of Hurricane, was in town yesterday, expounding upon the merits of Hurricane fruits, and giving ocular and appetizing demonstrations on the subject.

Mrs. Dora Lister of Parowan was brought to the Southern Utah Hospital yesterday, her condition being such that she will have to be built up before she is able to receive surgical attention.

Aunt Julia Cox left for Blaine, Washington, this morning on a visit to relatives. She was accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Hallman as far as Salt Lake City. E. A. Cox went to Lund with the party to arrange for transportation and to make things as comfortable as possible for them.

Owing to a quantity of copy for this issue, including the long county ordinance published in another column, our plans have been somewhat upset, and we have been obliged to omit the Ladies' and Children's departments from the premium list. We will try to make room for these next week, and in the mean time the list will be printed and distributed in pamphlet form.

The seven heirs to the George Wood estate have taken steps to convert the large building on lower Main street, formerly used for a furniture store, into an up-to-date apartment house. The plans are out and work will be commenced at once, with a view to having it ready for tenants by the opening of school in the fall.

The Parent's class of the East and West wards will meet together next Sunday morning, when they will be addressed by Dr. Leonard on local conditions confronting the people of Cedar City.

The physician in charge of our local Indians is in receipt of a communication from government officials asking for a statistical report of all Indians in this vicinity. The object is to take under advisement the establishment of an Indian school in this locality.

COMPLETE LIST OF PREMIUMS FOR THE IRON COUNTY FAIR

GREETING.

The Commercial Club of Cedar City sends greetings to the people of Iron County and contiguous settlements, and requests your attendance at the Iron County Fair, which will be held this year at Cedar City, Sept. 6, 7 and 8. In the following pages will be found a list of the premiums that we are offering on exhibits of various kinds, some of which we hope will appeal particularly to you.

We believe that we have soil and climate and natural resources unsurpassed by any section of the Western country, and we urge that you assist in bringing these advantages to the attention of the public generally by contributing as much as possible to the exhibition. Further, by comparing products and experience, we can be of much assistance to each other. We take it for granted that you are a progressive person, fully converted to the benefits of a good County Fair, and we earnestly solicit your co-operation.

There will be plenty to interest and amuse you during the three days of the Fair. If you are not a resident of Cedar City you will be gladly received and very generously treated. Hitch the team to the automobile and come right along, prepared to stay until the show is over.

The Fair this year is again under the auspices of the Cedar City Commercial Club, which is pledged to see that it is a thorough success. Get your exhibits ready and come.

Yours for the success of Iron County and the Fair, we are,
Yours very truly,
CEDAR CITY COMMERCIAL CLUB.
